

PRESS RELEASE

DIRECTORATE GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (PAKISTAN NAVY)
NAVAL HEADQUARTERS

Tel: 021- 48506127-8, 051-20062097

As part of endeavor to end maritime blindness in country, especially in the Heartland of country's most populous province of Punjab, Pakistan Navy has taken initiative of integrating with local academia and Think Tanks. In recent years, under the ambit of Maritime Centre of Excellence (MCE), Pakistan Navy War College was able to ink MoUs with seven leading universities at Lahore and Islamabad. To further enhance maritime awareness and integration with Think Tanks, Pakistan Navy War College has signed MoU with Centre of International Strategic Studies (CISS) on 29 April 2024. MoU covers a wide range of actions and events on mutually agreed subjects and schedules and includes but not limited to contributing Co-authored Research Papers, participation in Inter University Essay Competition, lectures related to maritime security, blue economy and other subjects.

DIRECTOR GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (NAVY)

Commandant Pakistan Navy War College and Ambassador Ali Sarwar Naqvi signing an MoU between PNWC and Centre of International Strategic Studies (CISS)

Commandant Pakistan Navy War College (PNWC) and Ambassador Ali Sarwar Naqvi in a group photo after an MoU signing ceremony between PNWC and CISS

Rear Admiral Azhar Mahmood presenting a souvenir to Ambassador Ali Sarwar Naqvi after an MoU signing ceremony between PNWC and CISS

Deputy Commandant Pakistan Navy War college (PNWC) and Dr Atia Ali Kazmi Director Research Centre of International Strategic Studies signing an MoU at PNWC Lahore