

PRESS RELEASE

DIRECTORATE GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (PAKISTAN NAVY)
NAVAL HEADQUARTERS

Tel: 021- 48506127-8, 051-20062097

CHARACTER BUILDING IS EQUALLY IMPORTANT ALONG WITH IMPARTING OF KNOWLEDGE: CHIEF OF THE NAVAL STAFF

Islamabad, 27 Feb 24: Chief of the Naval Staff Admiral Naveed Ashraf graced the annual prize distribution ceremony of Bahria College Islamabad as Chief Guest and gave away prizes to high achievers in academics, sports and co-curricular activities.

While addressing the ceremony, Chief of the Naval Staff highlighted that character building, mannerism and inculcating civic sense is equally important along with imparting knowledge in schools. He stressed upon teachers to give prime importance to wholesome development of students' personalities. He advised students that besides studies, they should also focus on learning social, ethical and moral values, to become better citizens of our society.

The Admiral congratulated the students and appreciated their academic, co-curricular and extra-curricular activities and lauded the efforts of Bahria College and Bahria special children school Islamabad for providing exceptional knowledge and skills to students in respective disciplines that will enable them to lead a professionally rewarding life.

Earlier, Principal Bahria College Islamabad, Commodore Aamer Rasheed Malik presented annual report of the college.

The ceremony was attended by senior naval officers, Bahria College officials, and parents of the graduating students.

DIRECTOR GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (NAVY)

