PNS TUGHRIL VISITS SALALAH PORT DURING REGIONAL MARITIME SECURITY PATROL

Islamabad, 15 Dec 23: Pakistan Navy Ship TUGHRIL visited Salalah Port of Oman for logistics and fueling on return journey to Pakistan after completion of routine operational deployment at Gulf of Aden, as part of Regional Maritime Security Patrol. During the stay at the port, the Commanding officer of the ship met with senior naval officials of Oman as part of Naval diplomacy and discussed matters of mutual interest. Navies of Pakistan and Oman enjoy very close relations as both the countries share the same ocean space. Both the Navies cooperate with each other for law enforcement, search and rescue and medical evacuation amongst other areas of interest.
