CHAIRMAN JOINT CHIEFS OF STAFF COMMITTEE ADDRESSES THE PARTICIPANTS & FACULTY OF NAVAL WAR COURSE

ISLAMABAD, 09 Apr 2018: General Zubair Mahmood Hayat, Chairman Joint Chiefs of Staff Committee, addressed the participants and faculty of Naval War Course at Pakistan Navy War College, Lahore.

The Chairman dilated upon the national security dynamics; challenges and opportunities. He highlighted the increasingly fluid security environment, shaped by a dynamic mix of emerging challenges and opportunities.

CJCSC stated that Pakistan's National potential is immense. He expressed full confidence in the resilience & dynamism of the nation to optimise its National Power.

Talking about the regional peace and stability, CJCSC specifically referred to the escalating Indian atrocities in Indian occupied Kashmir, particularly the brutal incident of Shopian and Islamabad districts. Chairman stated that as long as Kashmir dispute remains unresolved, stability in South Asia will remain a distant dream.

Earlier upon arrival, the Chairman JCSC was received by Commandant Pakistan Navy war college Rear Admiral Naveed Ahmed Rizvi.
