

PRESS RELEASE

DIRECTORATE GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (PAKISTAN NAVY)
NAVAL HEADQUARTERS

Tel: 021- 48506127-8, 051-20062097

FREE MEDICAL CAMP AT JANGU JALBANI BY PAKISTAN NAVY

Islamabad, 26 Apr 24: Pakistan Navy established free medical camp at Jangu Jalbani, District Sujawal, Sindh. A total of 438 patients availed free of cost treatment from specialist doctors of Pakistan Navy.

Patients from local populace were examined and treated by PN doctors and paramedics and were also provided with free medicines. During the medical camp, the local populace were also educated on common infections, personal health, hygiene, disease prevention and various seasonal/viral infections.

PN is committed to regularly provide quality medical facilities for the coastal communities of Pakistan. The establishment of free medical camp at Jangu Jalbani is a manifestation of Pak Navy's resolve for socio-economic uplift and well being of coastal communities.

DIRECTOR GENERAL PUBLIC RELATIONS (NAVY)

Doctor examining patient at free medical camp established by Pakistan Navy at Jungo Jalbani

Doctors examining patient at free medical camp established by Pakistan Navy at Jungo Jalbani