PAKISTAN NAVY ORGANIZES SEMINAR ON HINDUTVA IDEOLOGY & EFFECTS ON THE REGION AT PN WAR COLLEGE, LAHORE

Islamabad, 26 Feb 20: A significant seminar on Hindutva Ideology & Effect on the Region was held at Pakistan Navy War College, Lahore under the auspices of Maritime Centre of Excellence (MCE). The seminar bounded together an array of participants from public and private sector including a large number of scholars, faculty and students from prominent universities of Lahore.

During the session, eminent speakers enlightened the audience on various aspects of Hindutva Ideology and ongoing gross human rights violations in Indian Occupied Kashmir. The implementation of Hindutva ideology by the BJP's fascist government; following the RSS Greater Plan which is the emerging face of India was also revealed during the seminar. Besides, the presenters also underlined the possible ramifications for South Asian Region due to unfettered violence in Indian Occupied Kashmir.

The seminar was the foremost event held under the banner of MCE and amply highlighted Indian atrocities in Occupied Kashmir. It also underscored the valiant and legitimate struggle of Kashmiris to achieve the inalienable right of self-determination.

Pakistan Navy established MCE last year at PN War College, Lahore with an objective to expand understanding and providing impetus to ocean related matters tied to national security. MCE acts as the national hub of maritime thinking simultaneously undertaking academic/ applied research on both, Maritime Security and Blue Economy. Pakistan Navy contemplates major breakthrough in the field of maritime studies in Pakistan by providing intense focus to understanding of maritime affairs in Pakistan.
